WCOE Member Elected VP of SMACNA

Angela M. Simon is the First Woman to Serve on SMACNA's National Executive Committee

California, September 1, 2016: Angela M. Simon, President of Western Allied Mechanical, in Menlo, California, recently joined the WCOE. Ms. Simon has been very involved with the Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning National Association (SMACNA) for many years. Prior to becoming the Vice President on the National Committee, Angela was also the first woman to serve on the Board of Directors from 2007-2011. In addition to being a newly elected Vice President, Angela is also currently the co-chair of the Steering Council for Women in Construction Leadership. She is a true role model and inspiration to many women in the industry. WCOE congratulates you on your remarkable achievements and looks forward to celebrating your successes.

The Core Purpose of WCOE:

To promote the role of women-owned businesses in the construction industry, to advance women in executive management positions within the industry, to provide resources to enhance the professional development of every member, to provide a network of executive women in the construction industry for peer-to-peer assistance and information, and to monitor and pursue legislation advantageous to women in general and the construction industry in particular.
